1. FOREWORD

I welcome all the new comers. Congratulations to all those who are promoted to higher classes for your fine behaviour during your study in the college and have returned with confidence for further study. You have great responsibility to this sacred institution. The building and the infrastructural facilities you see around are but reflection of sacrifice of Late Mohan Lal Choudhury. Apart from Late Choudhury and some prominent citizens as well, educationists have also contributed immensely for the development of this institution.

The college is highly responsible for building a conducive academic atmosphere. It is one of the prominent academic nerve centres for the students of Barpeta Road town and its adjoining areas. It has produced a lot of Arts Graduate till date. Some of them are holding responsible jobs in different disciplines. A few have succeeded in business also.

In keeping with the tradition, G. L. Choudhury College has always encouraged a cosmopolitan culture that embraces within its old students from all castes, creeds and communities from Barpeta Road and its surroundings.

Sri Jagannath Barman, M.A.
Principal, i/c
G. L. Choudhury College
Barpeta Road.

2. PROFILE OF THE COLLEGE

Ganesh Lal Choudhury College was established at the heart of the Barpeta Road town as a co-educational institution in 1990. The foundation stone of the college building was laid on 16th March 1990, by Sri Ashok Saikia, the Education Commissioner, Govt. of Assam. The classes of the first academic session were held in Sahitya Sabha Bhawan, Barpeta Road.

The college took its birth due to the generous donation of Rs. 10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten lakhs) only by a prominent citizen of Barpeta Road, Aranyak, Late Mohan Lal Choudhury, in the name of his elder brother Late Ganesh Lal Choudhury. As such, the institution bears the name Ganesh Lal Choudhury College, Barpeta Road is one of the biggest commercial town in Lower Assam. The area has age old reputation for its cultural and socio-economic factors. Its business and farmer populace had faced great problem in acquiring higher education till then, as there was no institution for higher education in Barpeta Road and Gobardhana Block. Youths aspiring for higher education had to go out of the area, most of whom belonged to agro-based families and were economically handicapped. So, a group of enterprising educationists and social workers of Barpeta Road came forward and founded Ganesh Lal Choudhury College. Apart from the donation of Rs.10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten lakhs), the college has been carrying on its various developmental works through public collections, aids from local M.P.'s and M.L.A.'s LAD Fund, etc. The college was set-up to remove the educational backwardness of the area, provide accessibility of women to higher education, give a standing to social needs and relevant assistance to the people of Barpeta Road area and the like as its goal and objectives.

Late Dr. Kamal Narayan Das, was the founder Principal. The college introduced H.S and B.A. classes (Arts Stream) simultaneously in 1990. G. L. Choudhury College was accorded affiliation by the University of Gauhati in 1997. The medium of instruction is Assamese and English.
