1. FOREWORD

HAIL NEWCOMERS to the beautiful world of G. L. Choudhury College ! My hearty congratulations to you for succeeding in your last examinations and returning with a new found zeal and confidence to enrol yourself to the higher classes in our institution. The building and the infrastructural facilities you see around are but a reflection of the utmost sacrifice and inspiration of Late Mohan Lal Choudhury, the donor. Apart from Late Choudhury, this institution has bloomed into a popular academic institution for higher education owing to the labourious and undaunting contributions of some prominent citizens and educationists. So, its time, you gear yourself up with utmost responsibility towards this sacred institution.

The motto of our college is to build a conducive academic atmosphere and to provide an all round development to the latent talent of its students. Undoubtedly, it is one of the prominent academic nerve centres for the students of Barpeta Road and its adjoining areas. It has produced a lot of Arts Graduate till date. Some of them have shined exceptionally well and are holding responsible jobs in different disciplines. While, some others have shone excellently in business. Herein lies the meticulous and hard work of the college teachers and I grab this opportunity to thank them as well.

In keeping with the tradition, G. L. Choudhury College has always encouraged a cosmopolitan culture that embraces within its bosom students from all castes, creeds and communities coming from the surrounding areas and every nook and corner of the state as well. I sincerely hope that you shall go a step further in building up this cosmopolitan spirit.

With Best Wishes to all.

Sri Jagannath Barman, M.A.

Principal, i/c

2. PROFILE OF THE COLLEGE

Ganesh Lal Choudhury College was established at the heart of the Barpeta Road town as a co-educational institution in 1990. The foundation stone of the college building was laid on 16th March, 1990, by Sri Ashok Saikia, the Education Commissioner, Govt. of Assam. The classes of the first academic session were held in Sahitya Shaba Bhawan, Barpeta Road.

The college took its birth due to the generous donation of Rs. 10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten Lakhs) only by a prominent citizen of Barpeta Road, Aranyak, Late Mohan Lal Choudhury, in the name of his elder brother Late Ganesh Lal Choudhury. As such, the institution bears the name Ganesh Lal Choudhury College. Barpeta Road is one of the biggest commercial town in Lower Assam. The area has an age old reputation for its cultural and socio-economic factors. Its business and farmer populace had faced great problem in acquiring higher education till then, as there was no institution for higher education in Barpeta Road and Gobardhana Block. Youths aspiring for higher education had to go out of the area, most of whom belonged to agro-based farmers and were economically handicapped. So, a group of enterprising educationists and social workers of Barpeta Road came forward and founded Ganesh Lal Choudhury College. Apart from the donation of Rs. 10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten lakhs), the college has been carrying on its various developmental works through public collections, aids from local M.P.'s and M.L.A.'s LAD Fund etc. The college was set-up to remove the educational backwardness of the area, provide accessibility of women to higher education, give a standing to social needs and relevant assistance to the people of Barpeta Road area and the like as its goal and objectives.

Late Dr. Kamal Narayan Das, was the founder Principal. The college introduced H. S. and B. A. classes (Arts Stream) simultaneously in 1990. G. L. Choudhury College was accorded affiliation by the University of Gauhati in 1997. The medium of instruction is Assamese and English.
